The Victim Compensation and Government Claims Board, formerly known as the Board of Control, offers an exciting opportunity for staff counsel candidates. Staff attorneys provide general legal advice to the department and act as hearing officers for bid protests, claims filed by erroneously convicted felons and for appeals under the Victim Compensation Program. Under the general direction of the Chief Counsel the incumbent's work may include:

- Conducting administrative hearings for bid protests and drafting proposed decisions.
- Providing legal advice to the department's different program areas, including the government claims program.
- Reviewing Interagency Agreements and State Contracts.
- Assisting the Office of the Attorney General and acting as the department liaison in defending litigation against the department, including petitions for writ of mandate.
- Providing legal counsel to the department on matters relating to the disclosure of information, including responses to requests submitted under the Public Records Act.

REQUIRED KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, ABILITIES:

- Membership in the California State Bar;
- Strong interpersonal skills, and the ability to work with staff and the public at all levels;
- Clear and effective oral and written communication skills; and
- Ability to work independently and in a team setting.

DESIRABLE EXPERIENCE/QUALIFICATIONS:

- Experience with administrative adjudicatory bodies;
- Experience with state contracting process;
- Experience with civil litigation; and
- Familiarity with the Public Records Act and Information Practices Act.

WHO MAY APPLY:

Current Staff Counsel or attorneys eligible for appointment (transfers, list eligibility, reinstatements) to this classification may apply. In addition to their application, candidates must submit a current resume and two writing samples. Applications will be screened and only the most qualified will be interviewed.
